

Elevator

Chris K. Thomas

The big door opens and I step on in
Acknowledge the crowd with a nod and half grin
I find my favorite spot on the front left side
I face the front and settle in for the ride

We all look up to enjoy the show
The little man who makes those lights glow
After all these years we're still amazed to see
That the lights go on sequentially
On an ...

CHORUS

Elevator ... (elevator)... Elevator... (elevator)
Don't disturb me -- I don't want to talk
I'm on an elevator ... (elevator)... Elevator... (elevator)
I'd take the stairs but it's too far to walk

I'll look at you, but if you look at me
I'll turn away so you can't see
But I just might look at you; catch you with a glare
Cause don't you know it's not polite to stare
On an ...

BRIDGE

Some day, I'd like to see elevator anarchy
We'd crank the tunes, and dance in our socks
And have ourselves a party in a box
On an ...

CHORUS

Elevator engineers have a grand design
No matter how tall the building it's equal time
In a sky scaper -- zip -- up you will go
But in a two story, you go painfully slow
On an ...
